

Douglas County has received a handful of Economic Injury Disaster Loan Program (EIDL) assessment forms from small businesses. These forms have been forwarded to the Office of Oregon Emergency Management.

OEM has notified Douglas County that no additional assessment forms are necessary at this time. It is important that businesses understand the forms are not loan applications.

The state will work with the Small Business Administration on next steps. When and if loans are available, that information will be communicated to the public.